

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Senator Fair has been making a trip to Florida.

The testimony in the Guiteau case closed yesterday.

Senator Jones has returned to Washington from New York.

Judge Brown has taken the Gibbons murderers on a steamer to Marysville, Ky., for safe keeping. A mob took the steamer Mountain Girl and went in pursuit. It is thought they may reach Marysville.

Myron H. Bailey, late a Superintendent of mines in Humboldt county, Nevada, and some time ago in business at Rye Patch and Orona, shot and killed himself at his hotel in Sacramento yesterday. Cause, despondency because of illness. He was 50 years old and a native of Michigan.

H. H. Player of Denver, is in receipt of the particulars of a most cold-blooded and brutal murder committed upon his ranch at the crossing of the north fork of the Cheyenne river at Red Canyon, in Dakota. On the Telegraph road between Cheyenne and Deadwood on the morning of the 2d instant, Ed. Graham, a Texas cowboy, shot and killed Charles King, an employe on the ranch. He shot him three times, twice through the bowels, because he spoke to him about abusing his horse. The murderer took one of Player's horses and another belonging to Ernest and left the ranch. A boy left King and went to Custer for surgeons, when Graham returned and shot his victim again through the head and escaped.

The New York Sun's Washington correspondent says of the Grant-Porter affair: One Senator said yesterday that he did not believe the correspondence would change a single Republican vote. The Democrats are, of course, in a complacent mood over their eleventh hour convert. It is said, however, that they will hold him strictly to the terms, and it is even stated that the two bills to put Grant on the retired list and to restore Porter will be openly linked together and put upon their passage in this shape. Logan is reported to be in a somewhat belligerent frame of mind and disposed to take the ground that for his part, he will fight the restoration to the end, whatever becomes of the Grant bill. The Democratic Senators and Representatives very generally credit Grant with unselfish and honorable motives in espousing Porter's cause.

THE CHRONICLE VS. SARGENT.

Speaking of the opposition of the San Francisco Chronicle to Mr. Sargent as Secretary of the Interior, the Sacramento Record-Union says:

The San Francisco Chronicle has fully earned the reputation of being the most untruthful newspaper on the Pacific Coast. No journal indeed can follow the career of a professional black-mailer without abandoning allegiance to the truth, and as this has been the main business of the Chronicle, it has at no time been other than unreliable. At present it is the tool of the enemies of Mr. Sargent, who, being themselves men of sinister purposes, are filled with alarm at the prospect that an incorruptible and energetic man is to be Secretary of the Interior. And so they have procured the services of the Chronicle to throw mud at him, and the Desert Land Act has been selected as the principal point of attack. What is most significant about these assaults is that they come largely from men who have themselves been engaged in various dishonest land schemes; men who have either stolen land themselves, or who have tried hard to steal land. It is of such materials that the fight against Sargent is composed, and no more congenial organ than the Chronicle could have been selected for the purpose.

The Chronicle is very nearly alone among all the papers of California in its opposition to Mr. Sargent, but we suppose that paper has not forgotten the fight it had a few years ago with that gentleman. A man who have just hit under the ear isn't very likely to love you much.

WHAT NEXT?

An exchange says:

Mayor-elect Low of Brooklyn, who has taken the large contract of running the local government of the City of Churches as he would conduct his private business, was forced to leave town to spend his Christmas in quiet. The hungry politicians gave him no rest, but besieged him in crowds at his office and at home. Most of the workers still have hopes that they will get a share of public pay, but those who know Mr. Low say that he cannot be shaken out of his resolution to give the fat offices only to men who have proved themselves capable and honest. This necessarily rules out nineteen-twentieths of the professional politicians of the city. In the interest of reform it is to be hoped that he may have the backbone to hold his position.

If this thing keeps on and the affairs of cities, counties, States and the Nation are to be administered on business principles, what is going to become of all the small beer statesmen? It is too awfully awful to think of.

MINE MANAGEMENT.

We said a few days ago that we would have something to say about mine management, for the benefit of persons in the East who have invested in mining in this and adjoining States and Territories. We have seen the way in which it is done in several instances, so know whereof we speak. A mine is sold in some eastern city, money raised to prosecute developments and erect suitable machinery. Of course the first thing is the selection of a superintendent. In place of sending some careful business man who is interested in the property out to the mine and have him employ a miner who has learned the trade by working at it, it is the custom to pick up some pretty smart chap who happens to be out of employment, pay him two or three times what a capable man could be got for on the ground; furnish him with plenty of money and send him out. He arrives at the mine and the first thing he thinks of is to provide for his personal comfort. He builds a handsome residence, furnishes it in style, purchases a nice buggy and fine pair of horses, hires a foreman and bookkeeper and now he is ready for business. All this takes money and in most mining districts a good deal of it. There may not be ore enough in sight to keep a five stamp mill running, but this kid-gloved superintendent does nothing by halves; no little prospecting trip for him. So he goes to work and puts up anywhere from twenty to forty stamps. We know of one instance in which a very large mill has been built at an enormous expense, and we have been repeatedly told by miners from the district that when the job was commenced not a pound of ore had ever been seen in the mine, in fact all the mine there was consisted of a hole about fifteen feet deep full of water. Of course the mill is idle and likely to remain so. There are mining operations going on in several places in this State under the direction of fancy superintendents that are standing jokes among the miners of the sections where they are being done. The effect of this needless waste of money is to condemn mining as a legitimate business at the centers of capital. That there have been a large number of worthless mines sold in the East; that millions of dollars have been uselessly expended, is not the fault of the mines; but for the want of decent care in the purchase and decent management afterwards. If persons who wish to invest in mining enterprises will employ practical miners to examine and report on the proposed purchase and then a practical miner to carry on the work they will find mining an exceedingly profitable business.

A Popular King.

The king of Spain is the exceptional member of his family. Descending from a race that has been noted for the tenacity with which it has held to the "divinity that doth hedge about a king," he has at all times favored the most advanced liberal ideas gladly granting to his people all the liberties he believed they were capable of exercising. He has drawn to him the ablest men in his kingdom, and shown tact and judgment beyond his years. His popularity grows apace in Spain. He recently passed his 24th birthday, and the levee given in the Madrid Palace to honor the occasion was attended by delegates from all the official bodies in the land and by representatives of the various political organizations. Some time ago fault was found with the King's extreme youth. But the comments now heard refer to the old head that rests upon his shoulders. As a speaker he is called able, even in a country where oratorical gifts are prized, and predictions are made in London newspapers that he will, ere long, rank next to Queen Victoria as the most popular constitutional sovereign in Europe.

SPLINTERS.

They are selling Iowa raised turkeys in Austin, Nevada.

The Salt Lake Tribune places the bullion yield of Utah at nearly $10,000,000.

Is there a word in the English language that contains all the vowels? There is, unquestionably.

A few nights ago the San Francisco Harbor Police caught a boat load of opium worth $35,000, while being smuggled ashore.

The San Washington special says: The name of Robert Lincoln is already being canvassed in this city in connection with the Presidency.

On New Year's day, at the town of Sutor, David Kelly, a foot-racer, made a mile in six minutes and eleven seconds, in a race against time for $40.

Synopsized opinion by the Court: "These defendants are dismissed. The Court finds they stole a large amount—enough to entitle them to respect. Call the next case."

Ex-Governor Taber, the Colorado mining millionaire, is said to have recently bought the Jay Gould, Mayflower and Eureka mines, at Wood River, Idaho; paying $450,000 for the three.

A correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean signs herself "Alyce Carlyle." For aesthetic style this is enough to make one smile until the radiance of his beaming countenance can be seen for a myrtle!

In the United States twelve manufacturing plants produce 10,000,000 teeth annually or one to every five persons. The amount annually squandered on teeth is $1,000,000. A half million of gold is used every year to fill teeth.

The fastest recorded time of New York fire engines companies for harnessing up and getting ready to start is one second and a half. The average time of four or five of the quickest companies is about three seconds.

The public debt of the United States was reduced in December by $12,793,624. Since the 30th of June last, the close of the previous financial year, the debt has been reduced by $75,107,094. This is a very satisfactory showing, under our debt paying policy.

The crosscut on the 200 level of the Gunsight mine, Arizona, is said to be a mineral wonder. The ledge is fully twenty-eight feet wide, all ore with the exception of a small streak of sienite in the middle, and every particle of quartz taken out shows clean mineral.

There is a young lady in Keokuk, Iowa, who is six feet four inches tall, and she is engaged to be married. The man who won her did so in these words: "Thy beauty sets my soul aglow—I'd wed thee right or wrong; man wants but little here below, but wants that little—long."

Dr. H. J. Glenn of Jacinto has already ploughed and sowed 40,000 acres in wheat and expects to put in 30,000 acres more. If the yield is an average one in Colusa, Dr. Glenn will have in the neighborhood of 2,000,000 bushels to the harvest, or enough to load 30 ships.

It is remarked upon as a singular coincidence, in view of their long protracted hostility to each other, that Messrs Conkling and Blaine, who seven months ago held two of the proudest positions in the land, are both at present out of public life. No year in the history of our country has surpassed in dramatic events and situations the year 1881; none in time of peace has equaled it.

British Voyagers Coming.

The British steamship Ceylon is on her way around the world, with a party of 500 excursionists on board. The Ceylon left England a few weeks ago. She has visited various points of interest in Spain and Portugal, and when last heard from was at Malaga. Other Mediterranean ports will be visited, after which the steamship will pass through the Suez Canal and visit various points on the Asiatic shores. She will also call, among other places, at San Francisco, being due there some time in March. South America, Australia, the South Sea Islands and other interesting parts of the globe will be included in the trip.

The New York Evening Post says that a powerful lobby is expected in Washington after the recess, to push the Nicaragua canal scheme through. It is rumored that General Grant has turned from the Nicaragua canal, and now favors the Eads ship railway scheme, and the step is only the beginning of others which will lead to the consolidation of the two plans.

During the first eleven months of 1891 the value of breadstuffs exported from the United States amounted to $128,318,378, being about thirty millions less than for the same period of 1890.

An Anti-Prohibition Club, with a large membership has been organized at Burlington Iowa. The liquor question promises to be an important factor in politics, during the present year.

A Significant Little Speech from King Humbert.

La Opinione says: King Humbert, when receiving the New Year congratulations of Senators and members of the Chamber of Deputies, said, with an evident allusion to Bismarck's reported designs on behalf of the Vatican, that Italy was resolved to respect all governments, and had no reason to believe that any one had been wanting in respect to her, but it was well to make known that she was firmly decided not to admit the slightest discussion of certain questions touching her internal order. King Humbert also dwelt upon the necessity of the completion of the military organization. The King's words produced a great impression.

What Alaska is Good For.

Prof. Davidson in an address recently delivered in San Francisco says:

The islands, whose surrounding waters it is sought to be made known by surveys, present a shore line of 9,000 miles, and every mile is covered with timber to the water's edge. A timber which is abundant there is the yellow or Sitka cedar, used by the Russians before the purchase of Alaska by the United States, for ship-building. He had taken from there a piece of that yellow cedar, which formed part of a wreck that had lain on the shore for twenty-eight years, and had been in a ship which had been on the sea eight years before wrecked. These specimens were as sound as when the tree which grew there was cut. He had submitted the specimens to the Smithsonian Institute and to the construction department of the navy, and the latter had pronounced the yellow cedar the finest timber of its class for ship-building. The supply is so great that it will last until after all of the timber in Oregon is gone. Another source of wealth which could be developed if the surveys were completed, is the mineral deposit. He had taken from Alaska specimens of magnetic iron ore of the richest description. Some of it contained 70 per cent iron. There are also deposits of coal and limestone, used as a flux in smelting iron ore. The importance of such deposits of those three minerals, all necessary for the production of pig iron, can not be overestimated.

Then there is the cod fisheries interest. The cod banks are of an area four times greater than those around Newfoundland, and the cod can be made as marketable and valuable as those of Newfoundland, if more care is exercised in the curing. The whale fisheries will be more valuable each year. To be sure, the fur seal industry is not open to general development, but the sea-otter, not monopolized, offers a richer prize.

A Grand Railroad Scheme.

A railroad from Texas to Brazil through Mexico and Central America and by the Isthmus of Panama to Rio Janeiro has been projected. It is said that John W. Mackay, the great bonanza king, is to be the President, and that he has promised to devote his best energies and a large part of his capital to its completion. The project referred to was originated several years ago by Major John A. Lynch, now a resident of Washington. It then received the favorable consideration of Senator David Davis who gave tangible shape to the suggestion by introducing in the Senate a joint resolution that proposed the holding at Washington of a convention in which all the Republics of Central and South America should be invited to participate for the purpose of discussing this subject, and of taking action by which substantial harmonious co-operation could be had in carrying out such international railway communication. Senator Davis' measure met the fate of many others which were referred to the Committee, as then constituted, and died of neglect. There is now considerable talk of reviving the scheme, and although the rumor of Mackay's interest in it has not yet been verified, it is conceded that his support will go a long way toward insuring its success.

The Business Boom.

The Boston Post says: The year just closed had been one of unexampled prosperity throughout the business and industrial circles of the country. This is reflected sharply in the clearings at Clearings-houses, all but one showing an increase in the year's business over that of 1890. It is a striking evidence of the growth of our country that the total gross clearings of the large cities have increased in one twelvemonth from $50,688,924,098, to $64,409,580,987, or 27.1 per cent. Last year the increase over 1879 was 31.6 per cent. Tested by these records, the business of 1891 appears to have surpassed that of any previous year by between one-fifth and one-sixth in volume. The most remarkable increase of the year was that of Louisville, with 33 per cent gain, followed by Kansas City, 32.9; Chicago, 30.5; Pittsburgh, 30.6; New York, 28.8; Boston, 27.2; Cincinnati, 23.7; San Francisco, 23; Indianapolis, 22.4; Cleveland, 21.8; Springfield, 17.9; St. Louis, 17.

Fast Time.—The Nevada Central R. R. express train left Battle Mountain last evening at 4:55 and reached the Clifton depot at 8:45, making the run of 93 miles in 3 hours and 50 minutes, being at the rate of about 25 miles an hour. There is no narrow gauge road in the State that can beat ours in speed. Rah! —Austin Bayville.

The engineers engaged in locating the line of the Oakland and Utah railway are now camping near San Joaquin City. They are engaged in selecting a site for a bridge between that place and Grayson. The line has been located through Corral Hollow pass. A tunnel of 6,000 feet in length will be required to escapes very heavy grades.

An ex-seafaring man after reading in the Pilot last evening that Guiteau had been put in the dock, remarked that he was glad that the d-d son of a son-of-a-bitch was drowned at last.—Osgood Pilot.

In selecting jewelry it is all important that the articles chosen be of the latest styles and neatest designs, and so we would advise all who contemplate making gifts in that line during the holidays to call at Wm. Goeggel's store and see the new and beautiful selections recently received by him. The magnificent display of solid-gold jewelry set with precious stones, and of silverware, together with the attractive line of rolled-plate goods, at prices to suit the purses of all, is conclusive evidence of his excellent taste and determination to afford all Renoites an opportunity to purchase the finest articles at home, at reasonable prices. The Nevada and Oregon laborers met at the Central Hotel yesterday, and after talking the matter of their back pay over finally agreed to file a lien on the road, which they will immediately proceed to do. The Company will pay the charges necessary and will assist the men as far as possible in getting their money from the contractor. The latest advice from Col. Moore is that he is endeavoring to obtain the money, and as soon as he procures the amount will return to Reno and go forward with the work. The men seem willing to wait patiently until the contractor can be heard from definitely. They seem to understand that the Company is not to blame for the delay, and do not desire to give it any more trouble than they can help.

Well Yes!

The Governor of Nevada is in New York, the Secretary of State has been spending several months in California, the Governor's Private Secretary is Superintendent of a mine at Candelaria, the Surveyor General has taken up his residence in this city for the winter, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction is editing a newspaper at Eureka. All of this simply demonstrates that Nevada has a too elaborate State government and could easily dispense with a number of State officers. There are more heads of departments in the Nevada government than in that of the great State of New York. [Daily Report.

The White House.

Is one of our largest clothing establishments, and such an one as not only Reno but the State of Nevada can be proud of. Such is the extensiveness of their sales daily that the firm never has on hand what is called an "old stock," for just at present they are confined to a salesroom space which is wholly inadequate to their demands, and therefore, they are absolutely forced to order new goods, almost daily, to fill their orders. After a careful inspection of their stock of gents' and boys' clothing, gents' furnishing goods, hats and caps, boots and shoes, etc., we can truly say that we doubt if any other dealer in their line in Nevada has ever made an approach to the exhibit of the White House. The articles of Fine Custom Made Clothing kept by this firm is seldom seen in interior stores, and are kept but by a few of the larger houses in San Francisco. Some people think they cannot obtain a really good and fashionable article without sending to San Francisco, but that idea is soon dispelled after an examination of goods and prices at the White House. This establishment is admirably managed by Abrahams Bros. Call upon them and satisfy yourselves that what we state is true. Their prices are lower than those of any similar establishment in the State. No. 19 Commercial Row next to Postoffice.

PHYSIC, CURING

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner

Pill, and purifying the blood, are the most congenial purgatives ever perfected. Their effects abundantly show how much they excel all other Pills. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood, they stimulate the sluggish or disordered organs into action, and they impart health and tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. Most skillful physicians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed, and of great benefit derived from these Pills. They are the best and best physic for children, because mild as well as effectual. Being sugar coated, they are easy to take and being purely vegetable, they are entirely harmless.
